First, the Mayor announced that the 2024 Easter Egg Hunt that was held from 2:00PM to 4:00PM on March 30, 2024 was a success. A thank you was extended to the Council for their approval and the public for their participation.

Next, the Mayor announced that the Gladiator Sports Camp held between March 23 and March 31, 2024 was also a success. The Mayor acknowledged and thanked the hosts; the City of Tarrant Mayor's Office, Tarrant Recreational Center, City of Tarrant Library and Jefferson County Sheriff's Office, STRAP Organization and 98.7 KISS radio with Scott Evans and Patrick Coleman as planners. The Camp was held at Tarrant Recreation Center from 9am to 4pm. The primary objective of the camp was to promote critical thinking skills and conflict resolution using basketball, football and soccer. The Mayor recognized and acknowledged the importance of keeping young children and teens in a busy form of mode to prevent boredom, and decrease juvenile delinquency. A similar program will be proposed for the summer.

Finally, the Mayor informed all in attendance of an upcoming cleanup day at a local and historic cemetery behind the Rushing Spring Baptist Church. The Mayor provided a brief history of the cemetery located on District 5 and owned by the Rushing Spring Baptist Church by informing all those in attendance of the Buffalo Soldiers and former slaves being buried at the site. The last known burial was in 1965 of the estimated 150 to 160 year old cemetery. Over 150 hours was spent in cutting brush to access the cemetery to the estimated 200 graves. A catalog of all graves will be taken, and more information will be provided. There was discussion on the exact location of the cemetery that sits on a hill. The set scheduled date for cleaning to begin will be on Saturday April 13, 2024 for the worthwhile event.

This ended communications from the Mayors Office.

Next, Committee Reports were presented.

Councilor Anderson informed all in attendance that there was a finance committee held for the purpose of discussing the police fleet of vehicles. Notes on the meeting will be forwarded to the City Clerk.

Public Comments was next on the Agenda.

First, Ms. Linda Lowry approached the podium. Councilor Bryant proceeded to mediate Ms. Lowry’s request by use of illustrations using the Council chambers tv monitor. The monitor indicated a ravine or ditch recently constructed by the public works department on the front edge of Ms. Lowry’s front yard. Councilor Bryant provided different scenarios as to how the newly constructed ravines could be more problematic than beneficial for the City of Tarrant homeowners. There was discussion on the advantages and disadvantages of the newly constructed ravines issue on certain homes due to the landscaping of the homes.

Second, Chuck Winborn asked the Council for more information on Detective Morrows hearing and the details involved, more specifically on the termination procedures. Mr. Winborn also reviewed and presented issues regarding the Chief of Police and the Mayor in reference to conducts and duties.

Third, Waynette Bonham verbally presented the Alabama State Criminal Code and its validities. Ms. Bonham encouraged the Mayor and Council to be familiarized with the code, more specifically with rules and procedures in appointing officials.

Fourth, Ms. Bonita Valdez strongly expressed failed communications with Tarrant City Hall via phone call in service requests. After debate on whether the issue was a private landlord issue or a City of Tarrant public service issue it was agreed that the Fire Chief Bennett would visit the residence of Ms. Bonita Valdez to determine the level and validity of the structural hazard.

Councilor Theadford made a motion to adjourn the meeting at 7:52PM. Councilor Freeman seconded the motion. Mayor Newton called for a vote.
